Guest of Honour

Mr. Jagadish More

Assistant Commissioner, State Election Commission of Maharashtra

Dr. Rajendra Gurao (Principal of SNDT College of Arts and SCB College of commerce and Science for Women) welcomed the dignitaries. He said objective of webinar is to make voters aware about importance of voting and they being vigilant in democracy. Dr. Nitin Prabhu Tendolkar Dean (Additional Charge) (Department of Student Development DSD) presented the activities conducted at university level to celebrate democracy fortnight in 2022.

In his address Mr. Jagadish More explain the role of state election commission and its role in conducting elections at local bodies level. He also highlighted the importance of adult franchise which was gifted by our constitutional makers.

Elaborating this theme further he highlighted the need of vigilant voter in democracy.

In this age the challenge of paid news and social media was discussed by Mr.

Jagdish More. He requested the young voters to be vigilant and careful while forwarding data and validating the data before circulating on social media platforms.

M. Nilesh Madane took review of functioning of parliamentary democracy and its tradition in Maharashtra. He also explained the engagement of legislative bodies with voters through commonwealth parliamentary training and V S Page parliamentary training Institute initiatives. He narrated few incidents of debates in legislative house to throw light on rich democratic tradition of debate, dissent and respect for opposition. He also shared his experiences of recent visits to Indian Parliament and Commonwealth parliament officers meet at Shimla. He recited his own poem to motivate all to come-out and vote. Dr. Subhash Waghmare Registrar SNDT women's University gave presidential address and agreed to support to State Election Commission in spreading the awareness among young voters. At the end formal vote of thanks was proposed by Chitra lele nodal officer of SNDT women's University.

Outcome of this webinar is students got to know about role of two institutions institutions ie state election commission and legislative assembly in working of democracy.
